Sir:

The Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due mailed March 16, 2005, contains a Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

It is respectfully noted that the statement of reasons appears to indicate that all of the pending claims contain a number of very similar elements. However, it should be noted that different claims in the pending application contain different elements. Thus, it each claim's scope is determined on the particular language of the individual claim. It is respectfully submitted that language from one claim should not read into a different claim based on discussion provided in the Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

Respectfully submitted,

STALLMAN & POLLOCK LLP
